People—a generation of leaves
Born of bud
Young, strong, yet green
Years of growth through storm and abuse
Constantly changing in the seasons of life.

Yearlings—enjoy the time of fantasy;
Learn of peace
Care, love, yet cry
Nature travels on and youth fades
Slowly drifting to the ground from whence life came.
—J.H.

I remember the day
You gave me a simple brown October leaf
That I pressed between the pages of my mind
And the marigold
Freshened by the morning dew.
Can you recall how the sun reflected
Over the gentle ripples of water
As we gazed into the lake?
Thinking of our love found in autumn only as a Beginning—
That will warm our winter to come.

—J.H.

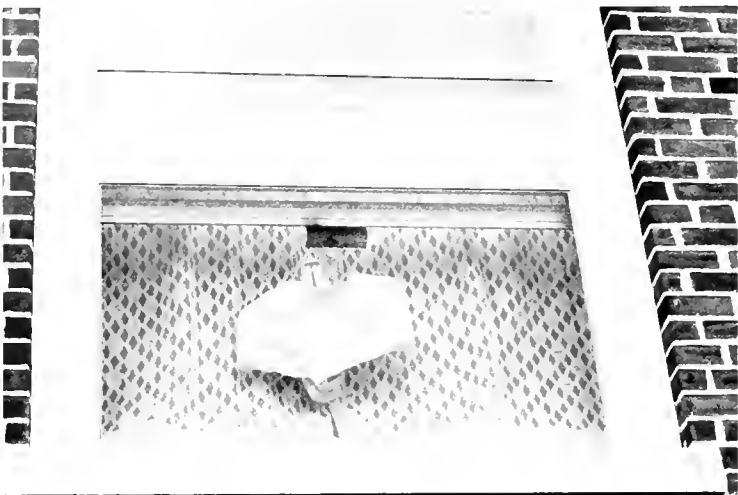

"I am He
As you are He,
As you are me,
And we are all—
Together."
—Lennon—
McCartney

"Love to one, Friendship to a precious few, and Good-will to all."

"When angry, count four: when very angry, swear."
—Mark Twain

"The supreme happiness of life is the conviction of being loved for yourself, or, more correctly, being loved in spite of yourself."

—Victor Hugo

America has a finger in something so it won't Lose its' place, but doesn't know exactly what It is, why it's there, or which finger was
There to hold a place to start with anyway.
Do your children know where your fingers are?
—J.H.

"May the smile on the face be but a reflection of the feeling of the heart."

May Week
Fantasy On Film
Dance Combo
John Sebastian

A slight gentle drizzle
Did not dampen the spirits
That came alive
With the exciting May Week troics

Twelfth Night which ran for a record four nights
In the round
Before a "sell out" crowd

"Fantasy on Film"—a gracetul rhythm
Of precise swimmers
For charity

Let's not forget the gentle, calmer moments
With visiting parents and Reflections of the year gone by Whispering—what a great week!

Skin, dress, color personality;
God delights in the diversity
And each one of us is different from the other;
Yet we all reach for a calm, selfless friendship to fill those quiet moments:
A soft touch
A helping hand
Accepting us for what we are.

Simple thoughts
Quiet times
Spent alone or shared with others
Become a yearling tree where Growing thoughts
Exciting times
Reflect—
A word or touch
Given Freely.

I am He
As you are He,
As you are me,
And we are all—together.

Elizabethtown College Alumni Association

Welcomes Graduating Seniors

The Elizabethtown College Alumni Association takes great pleasure in welcoming you—the graduating class of 1973—into its membership. You have been our main concern during your stay at the college. Our goal was to serve you through the institution in an effort to provide the best educational preparation possible to equip you to meet with success the life ahead. Won't you become an active member of the association and give of your time and talents to serve the students who follow you?

Since 1899 the motto of Elizabethtown College has been "Educate for Service." May this likewise be your motto as you pursue your professional and vocational endeavors. Hopefully, your experiences and associations at the college have been not only educationally but personally enriching.

The Alumni Association of Elizabethtown College congratulates you for your accomplishments and sincerely wishes you great success in the future. Will you take this invitation seriously to join other alumni in their efforts to maintain and enhance the traditionally fine image of your Alma Mater?

Sincerely,

Gene G. Swords, '51, President

My thanks goes out most sincerely to my staff for the 1972-73 Conestogan. Their cooperation and persistence has made this year the best of all. am

Special thanks for Alice and the Clan!
Mike and Nancy

I remember the day
You gave me a simple gold October leaf
That I pressed between the pages of my mind
A symbol of friendship and love
Fresh as the morning dew.

As the leaf turned brown and cracked with age
Not so with the sharing of
Tears of laughter,
Times of sorrow and Mindful talks.

Four years of education
Some profited only of book learning
But four years of life is Saying goodbye to a part of yourself
And a security forever
Lodged into memories
Evolving into an eternity.
